In brief, Mr. Richards was an Ideal Layman.

Such a man has no temptations to be idle. Always in demand where needful work was to be doon, he was always willing to serve. In almost any otherial capacity his town and country would honor themselves by imposing dithoul and important tensts opon him. At the age of eight he was seen at a free, working with the bucket as vigornusty ig as ris he had been but thirty, and he did not leave the scene of destination till after the mulnight how.

WHAT is meant by 'free alkali,' Doctor? I see it mentioned in the advertisements of IVORY SOAP." "Free Alkali,' Madam, is the alkali which is not combined with the fats or oils of which the soap is made, due to the ignorance or carelessness of the soap maker. Soaps in which 'free alkali' is present are decidedly injurious to both the clothing and the skin when habitually used. I have seen reports of analysis made of the IVORY SOAP by men eminent in our profession, and all pronounce it to contain no 'free alkali,' to be made with great care and of materials of the best quality, carefully selected, so I unhesitatingly recommend it for every purpose about the house for which good soap

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'tvory't" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon gelling it.

JUANITA'S FATE. BY BUREAU BANCOUFT.

In the early mining days of Califoria it was very rarely that the rough men laid hands upon a woman to mete out justice to her. About the only sen timent that had withstood the burd life of the mines was that laid in carlier days by the the tender influence of mother. sister or wife, and this had become solt ly intensified So woven among the filers of the heart was it, so mingled with the sensueus blood, so wrapped within the folds of passionate imagination that, like ash-covered coals, the drearer the uspect without the warmer glowed the fire within. It muttered not so much to them wire or what she was:she might be chaste and fair or as wicked as dezebel, she was the impersonation of their faney-ridden brain, the expression of their hunermost ideal of the beautiful and good. Then wild, indeed, must lave een the fury that maddened them ngarust a woman and never was insensate wrath more manifest than among the miners of the Yuba for miles on either side of Downieville, when on the morning of July 5, 1851, it was known that a comrado had been slain, butchered with a long, sharp knife, by a woman. Sex was suddenly lost sight of, obliterated by the whirl of passion, which left nothing in sight last the bloody deed. Joe Cannon killed! words were appalling. Joe was the INSURANCE.

OF THE LATE ELIAS RICHARDS. ESQ.

The undersigned having purchased of Mr. Richards his Insurance business (notwithstanding the special notice in this paper to the contra,) begs leave to submit to their judgment the correctness of his claim, by printing the two letters sent by him to each of the manipanies he represented, the same having been diclated and sent at his request.

TO THE DONCHESTER M. F. 188, Co.

Gentlemen:—Having been quite ill for the past two months. I have decided to give up the business of Insurance, and would like to transfer the business to Henry A. Tirrell of Weymouth, a man who has had several years experience, and muc who has my confidence as a man of good character and standing, and I desire that the companies with which I have been connected will make him their agent, and thus containe the business.

If this three your approval please let me know at an early day.

I am yours truly,

ELIAS RICHARDS.

By L. C. R.

To THE DORCHESTER MUT. FIRE INS. Co:

Gentlemen—Mr. Henry A. Tirrell is to have my insurance business from the 1st 1st, next. He will need his commission and supplies at that time. Of the latter I have enough to transfer to him if you tidak best. If not, he will depend upon you. Please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience.

Mr. Tirrell will probably occupy my office for the present.

I am yours truly,

ELIAS RICHARDS,

by L. C. R.

TO THE DORCHESTER SHOT. FIRE INS. CO:

Gentlemen.—Mr. Henry A. Tirrell is to have my insurance business from the 1st Oct. next. He will need his commission and supplies at that time. Di the latter I have enough to transfer to him if you think best. H not, he will depend upon you. Please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience. Mr. Tirrell will probably occupy my office for the present.

I am yours truly,

One of the Great Industries of

What the peach orchards are to Delaware the tonato fields are so much to Salemand Cumberiand counties, says a in the regular Delaware neach baskets and londed on wagons purposely armet by a "wngon master," who assigns and Industrious farmer ha unhitches his horsen and returns to his farm with his tonm, for he can, in all probability go nome, gather mother load, and return to the canning house before his first load is wanted at the "scalder." Long lines of farm wagens loaded with this fruit may be seen around each of the great establishments. The farmers la most cases linvs gone homs and left their wagona unguarded. They are perfectly safe. Tomatoes are so abundant that not even the street garain will molest them. Sometimes 24 hours pass between the time n wagoaload is delivered to the wagon master and its delivery to the scalder. The acalder ls the primary machine in the canning fectory, inless the scales be classed as a part of the factory. The acales are In the street, but the register is inside of the offics. The farmer, who, by the grace of the wagon master has the next turn at the scalder, is told to pull his ness, love, courtship and marriage; wagen on to the nesies, and the thwart the cell designs of enemics; inturn at the scalder, is told to pull his wagon, basket, and man are all weighed sure a safe journey and perform many together. Then he is told to "juil! un" to the scalder. This nealder is n large hox tub, made square, into which thers is turned a steam pipe by which the water may be kept hot. Inside of the scalder and working on hinges there is a half round iron basket that will hold the tomatoes. This basket is so arranged that a man with a rope running through n block can lower the tomatoes late scaliling water or lift them out at will. Usa ally two baskets are put lato the scalder at a time, and by the time the farmer can walk the four or live steps backward to the wagon and return these two baskets of tomatocs have been scalded and by a movement of the rope sent into tuos, and it is said that they are washed at the same time that they are scalled; but, as the water in which they are scalded is generally so muddy us to make it impossible to see a tomate a

He was for many years actively connected with the local fire department, baying served several terms as chief engineer, as well as in other capacities. Having, by diffigent and persistent offerts, raised himself from a workman to an employer of labor, he is enabled to take an intelligent view of the labor question. He is in full sympathy with the recent and proposed legislation on labor matters, and is especially opposed, and has been for years, to the prison confract system.

In private life Mr. Stevens is quiet and massiming, never socking publications.

A true story.

In private life Mr. Stevens is quiet and massuming, never socking public fly of notoriety but doing his duty as a citizen in a manly, straightforward fashion. The nomination for the senatorship came to him entirely massibilited, and his strength was well illustrated at the convention by his receiving a clear majority of the votes on the first ballot. To sum up all in a few words, Mr. Stevens is a clean, solid, substantial man, with the strength of the convention of the tree strength of the votes of the first ballot.

A series of daily preaching services were field during, ast week in the Cristral square. Congregational church, Budgewater. Rev. W. H. Bolster occupied the pulpit Wednesday. The Bridgewater Ledgradout has the following tellitive to the services:
"It was a fair strod and very attentive authorice that gathered for the Wednesday evening services. After the issuit opening exercises Rev. W. H. Bolster of South Weymouth preached an elopion symmetry of the subject of savation, what it is, what it means for its and how it may be obtained. His text "How sholl we scape if we neglect so great a sativation," from Hebrews it, i, is, and always has been, a layoute studing point for revival discourses, limit Mr. Bolster's treatment of the subject was new and original. The idea of the gleatingss and inclusiveness of the sava, of Christ was brought out nearly to the entire exclusion of the Hought to escape.

Miss Julia Sibley has permitted her friends and neighbors to enjoy a rich treat, in viewing a complete set of parlor decorations she has been priming for her sister, Mrs. Baker, of South Weynouth. The work is done in oil mon about 45 yards of white velvet. The designs are in clusters of roses, vines and liflies, from nature, on curtains, lambrequins, and all the other etceteras of parlor fixtures. Everything is artistical and therefore true to nature. There will be one splendid room in Weymouth, surely.—Oxford Midnesekly.

ORIGINAL SONG.

There's songs about most every thing, That was ever wrote by peb, flut until this none liqs been wrote, About the great statestimen, So it you'll only listen. While a closing little song I'll sing. I've hit upon a happy theme, I think the very thing. I think like very thing.
There was Alexander Hauilton,
Of noted Scotch descent;
He established the banking system,
And by him the money was spend.
He was commander-in-chief of the army
A place he nobly hilled;
In a duel he longlit, with Aaron Burr,
So this great man was killed. In Old England the name of Gadstone, The Irish race have taught, The grand, old man so noble, So hrin, so pute, in thoughl; Like Webster, our noted statesman, Who was Secretary of the State, Fheir names go down to posterity, So famous and so grest, And so, with Prince Von Bismarck, Of all our noted Presidents,

And a vicenism Fator victoria.

Now there's Henry Clas the statesican,
And a noted legal light,
He was also peace Commissioner,
And los namesake's here to night,
There was Andrew Jackson President
A ceneral of ms will linguars, Among the great ruen spoken of, I he statesmen of to-night, There is one more I it sing to you,
A man of note and ringht,
II is President of these United States

History afterds as many examples of men or gentics, of great intellectual attainments and of exceptional energy, who have failed for task of enthlossiasts, where others less gifted but possessed of more enthusiasm have wan success. Plotably no more marked contrast could be found than Washinghum and Napoleon. Napoleon land great natural abilities, he was highly educated, he had tremenhous energy and will power, but he had to heart, not feeling, no enthusiasm. He looked upon his follow beings as so many figures that entered into his calculations as so many figures that entered into his calculations as so many figures that entered into his calculations as so many figures that entered into his calculations as so many pawns upon his cless-board, in be sacrificed whenever the least advantage would result. For a time apparently successful, he was in the end overthrown by a general less skilling than himself, and now the two things that crety child knews about Napoleon are that he was detected at Waterloo, and died a prisone at St. Helma.
